DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 20, 3-6, and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 20 is considered to be indefinite because there is no antecedent basis for "said main body" (line 5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 28 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Miwa et al., U.S. Pat. No. 5,570,160, in view of Shinohara et al., JP 11-349737.

Miwa et al. discloses an image forming apparatus comprising: a photosensitive drum 10; and a mass body (shaft) 102 disposed within the photosensitive drum 10 for adding mass to the photosensitive drum (inherently); wherein an outer circumference of the mass body 102 and an inner circumference of the photosensitive drum 10 along an entire longitudinal length of the photosensitive drum 10 being separated from each other by a gap (Figure 9), and being not in contact with each other (Figure 9).

Miwa et al. differs from the instant claimed invention in not disclosing the material of the mass body.

Shinohara et al. discloses a drum 2; a mass body 1 being positioned inside the drum 2; and the mass body 1 being made of rubber material (abstract).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to apply the rubber material as taught by Shinohara et al. to the mass body of Miwa et al. to further reduce vibration in a wide frequency or amplitude range (Shinohara et al., abstract).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 21-26 are allowed.
5. Claims 20, 3-6, and 27 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 8/29/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant states the newly added claim 28 is allowable because of the feature of the mass body made of rubber material. Examiner has found a reference (Shinohara et al.) that teaches to use the rubber material for the vibration-damping member.

Therefore, claim 28 is rejected by the combination of Miwa et al. and Shinohara et al.

See above 35 USC 103 rejection.
